LIBERTY LIMERICKS

Said a lumberman named
Mr. Wood,
"If we'd work just as hard,
as we could,
And all of us bought
The Bonds that we ought—
We'd dispose of Herr Hitler for good!"

Just Let Us Know!

This is an invitation from the Daly City Record to any local man in Uncle Sam's armed forces, or his "home folks" to let us know of promotions and activities that would be of interest to Daly City readers. We are always happy to publish such news. Since only a few of the training camps and officers' schools have public relations officers, we do not hear directly of many such promotions unless the men or their families themselves tell us.

When "Johnny" or "Joe" becomes corporal or goes off to officers' training school, let us know. Phone RAndolph 3215. That's NEWS to Daly City. In addition, our long-ago offer to send The Record free to any man fighting for Uncle Sam still holds. Just let us know your name and address.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

HAVE YOU PLANTED ONE?

Have you planted a Victory Garden? If not, you had better do so without delay to insure the fresh food needs of your family.

This warning was voiced today by William J. Cecil, state director of agriculture and member of the State Council of Defense. Cecil pointed out that the increased food demands of our armed forces as well as the civilian populations of America's war allies make it imperative that every family with a yard take immediate steps to grow as much of their own food as possible.

Cecil expressed the hope that Victory Garden committees will be established in every community in the state. Every vacant city lot, Cecil believes, should be utilized to grow vegetables.

Lookie — Lookie COOKIES!

Youngsters love big, soft, puffy, drop cookies—especially with milk after school. And chances are oldsters go for them, too—any size, shape or kind.

Cookies pack easily in lunch boxes, are delightful to serve when guests drop in, and are tasty for just plain munching. They're good for you, too. So how's your cookie supply? We think the two recipes given below are tempties—real wartime specials and treats for your favorite cookie jar. Why not try them today.

PRALINE BUTTER PUFFS
(They magically disappear)

1¼ cups flour
¼ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter
½ cup white sugar
½ cup finely chopped pecan or walnut meats
Powdered sugar

Sift flour, measure and sift again with brown sugar and salt. Cream butter and add flour mixture gradually, creaming after each addition. Melt white sugar in heavy frying pan, heating until golden brown, stirring constantly. Add nut meats and pour into well-greased drip pan (9x12½x2). When hard, crush fine with rolling pin. Add to cookie dough, mixing thoroughly. Form dough into small balls. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) for 15 minutes or until done. Remove from oven, cool slightly about 3 minutes, roll in generous amount of powdered sugar. When cold roll again in powdered sugar. Makes 3 dozen cookies, ¾-inch in diameter.

JEWEL BARS
(Cookie jar gems)

2 cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. cinnamon
1½ cups finely cut gum drops
4 eggs
2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
½ cup chopped walnut meats

Sift flour and measure. Sift again with baking powder and cinnamon. Sprinkle dry ingredients over gum drops. Beat eggs until light; add brown sugar and mix well. Stir in flour and gum drop mixture and add nut meats. Bake in two well-greased shallow square pans (8x8x2) in moderate oven (350° F.) for about 20 minutes or until done. Cut in bars (1x2 inches) while hot. Cool. Remove from pan and roll in powdered sugar. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

FILL OUT AND RETURN

Form is no longer the human figure, it's questionnaires from Washington! Who would have thought it would take a whole "joint committee on reduction of non-essential Federal expenditures" to come to our rescue!

Senator Vandenberg, co-author of a resolution calling for an investigation of the necessity for the questions which business men and private citizens must now answer, declares it would require the services of an Indian crystal gazer to fill out some of these forms. Life has grown so complicated these days, or is it the forms that have grown complicated? Whichever it is, Washington has to have the answer.

It has to know, for instance, everything about fish oil. Chairman Byrd of Virginia reports that the questions concerning fish oil supplies covered four feet of paper. He refused to put it in the pile of questionnaires under consideration because it "was just too big." Senator Byrd also noted that farmers would have to read 24,000 words to fill out the order for certificates of war necessity regarding their farm trucks! And the number of times citizens have to tell their ages these days! We hope it won't cause internal revolution among the new corps of women workers in the nation!

Take Form No. 1-1071-PLOF-5-NOBU which the properly impressed committee members were asked to consider. No, let's not. Let's let Washington take it to play with for after all, it only concerned cosmetics. Maybe the solution is what has been suggested so often lately—probably by someone who had just filled out a questionnaire—that some of the thousand of able-bodied employees in Washington might join the Army or Navy and stop working so hard!

MEAT IS

FOR BUOYANT HEALTH

For distinguished wartime service at home, the American housewife deserves the congressional medal. She's feeding her family nutritious foods because she knows only healthy nations win wars.

She knows that meat is a richer source of more dietary essentials per average serving than any other single food and that it should be included in the diet daily as a rich source of protein, vitamins, minerals, and energy needed.

Our market maintains an enviable reputation for quality meats at competitive prices, even with todays wartime problems of food supply.
